On the subject of Prisoners Rights ([SUBSTANTIVE RIGHTS RETAINED BY PRISONERS], Right of Access to Courts); The Constitution guarantees prisoners the right of meaningful access to the courts. This right of access imposes an affirmative duty on prison officials to help inmates prepare and file legal papers, either by establishing an adequate law library or by providing adequate assistance from persons trained in the law. Prison officials are not required to provide both, as long as access to either is "meaningful." quoting: THE GEORGE TOWN LAW JOURNAL, FOURTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REVIEW OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE 2017, 46 GEO. LJ. ANN. REV. CRIM. PROC. (2017).

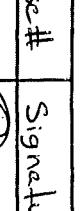

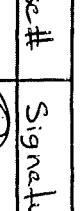

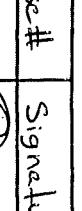

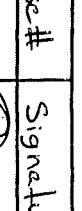

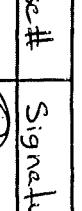

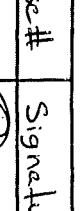

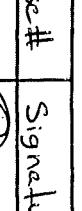

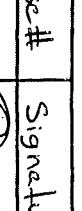

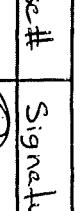

Myself and countless others are refused, ignored, and given excuses why we all aren't allowed to go to law library; countless I-60s and Grievances and requests have been sent to Captain Golberg, Mrs. Brazil, Mrs. Benoit, and Warden Lacey, yet only an average of 1 to 2 inmates in all of LaSalle are allowed to go 1 to 2 times a month and almost bi-monthly for under 1 hr, violative to our right of access to courts. See Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817, 828 (1977) (prisoners have fundamental constitutional right to adequate, effective, and meaningful access to courts to challenge violations of constitutional rights) See also Johnson v. Avery, 393 U.S. 483, 485 (1969) (prisoners' rights of access to courts may not be denied or obstructed)

In result of almost completely foreclosed access to law library in combination of attorneys lack of effective assistance of counsel, nor I or others are given a chance at a fair trial, or mitigating factors to result in justifiable proceedings or outcomes. Myself and everyone here are left no other conclusion other than that this issue far beyond plain error is prejudicial and effects substantial rights: violative to constitutional rights.

I-60 forms to jail personnel that were refused, ignored, given a excuse why they aren't allowed to go or rarely went at all.
